

FOR ALL SMALL LIVESTOCK DEPARTMENTS - RULES

1. Animals found in ill health will be refused. Animals becoming ill during the show will be isolated and disqualified.
2. Exhibitors are responsible for feeding and watering their animals and must provide containers for such. Exhibitors must have their animals fed and watered by 9am Saturday and Sunday mornings. Exhibitor must provide for the care of their own animals – not a parent or friend. For each animal entered, exhibitor must provide a food crock and a water bottle or crock. Paper or plastic cups are not allowed for the health of the animals. Failure to provide adequate food and water will result in disqualification.
3. Exhibitor is responsible for setting up their own animal's pen at the fair. In the case of multi-pen cages, exhibitor must assist others with the cage set up. If exhibitor is unable to help with set up due to school, he/she may appoint another person to take their place (replacement person's name must be noted on entry form). Failure to assist in set up will result in disqualification.
4. Exhibitor is responsible for cleaning up their own animal's pen at the fair including the cage and the cage area. In the case of multi-pen cages, exhibitor must assist others with the clean-up. Failure to assist with clean up will result in forfeiture of awards – no exceptions.
5. Exhibitor is responsible for keeping their animal's cage and cage area clean. The cage must be clean and ready for public viewing by 9am on Saturday and Sunday. Failure to care for the animal will result in disqualification.
6. In order to be judged, animals must be checked by show clerks before being placed in cages. Exhibitor will be issued a plastic fair tag for each animal (poultry, rabbit, cavy and cat departments) pre-filled with the entry information. After clean-up on Sunday, exhibitor must return the plastic tag to the show clerk, at which time their awards will be released.
7. Animals must remain in cages except during showmanship and judging.
8. Entries must be cleaned up and picked up promptly at the close of show on Sunday.
9. Entries may have to be limited and preference will be given to the sponsoring county.
10. No animals allowed on the grounds unless entered in the Fair.
11. No animals in Exhibit Building per Chino Fairgrounds contract (Cats exempt).

ENTRY GUIDELINES

1. Entry forms must have name, address, phone, age and club for each member and be signed where specified. If a replacement person will be doing the member's set up on Friday, that person's name must also be on the entry form.
2. All small livestock may be further subdivided by breed, variety and color if more than 5 animals are entered of any 1 type. This will be left to the discretion of the Small Livestock Director.
3. Fair Management reserves the right to reject or disqualify any Small Livestock Department entry when due cause has been shown.

Pet Rabbit Judging Criteria and Guidelines

Pet rabbits are defined as any non-pedigreed rabbit that is four months of age or older. Pedigreed rabbits must be entered in the standard rabbit division. Rabbits under four months of age must be shown under the “Pets and Small Animals” division so they are housed indoors during the fair. Pet rabbits are expected to remain at the fair until it closes on Sunday and are housed with the other rabbits in the small livestock area. Member is responsible for providing food, water, and bowls for their rabbit.

A written introduction to the animal must accompany the rabbit. Suggestions for things to include – how member acquired the rabbit, family tree (real or theoretical), ways it is unique from other rabbits, and so forth. No more than one page will be read by the judge, though member may include more for others to view.

Pet rabbits can have either permanent ear tag numbers or temporary tags (masking tape or marker) on their left ear. If using temporary tags, simply number them as follows –

Member's Initials #

Example: Member John Smith's cavies would be JS1, JS2 and so on.
